Vienna, June 23.

THIS advis'd from Fiume, that the 6th Inſtant 460 Soldiers more were ſent from thence in Tranſport-Veſſels, for the Port of Manfredonia in the Kingdom of Naples. So that at 4 ſeveral Times, viz. the 22d and the 24th of April, the 24th of May, and that abovemention'd, there have been tranſported to that Kingdom 1901 Soldiers, 1 Lieutenant Collonel, 6 Captains, 7 Lieutenants, and 12 Enſigns; to recruit and reinforce the Imperial Troops there. The Emperour has promoted the 3 following Officers to the Rank of Major General: viz. The Baron de Toldo who commands the Regiment of Tollet, Count Joſeph de Thaun, and M. Pliſchau who commands the Regiment of Arnan. Count Frederick de Lanthieri, Gentleman of the Bed-Chamber to his Imperial Majeſty, and Lieutenant-Collonel of the Regiment of Cuſani, is made a Collonel, in Conſideration of his having acquitted himſelf honourably in 24 Campaigns, and of the Merits of his loyal Family. Alſo in Conſideration of the eminent Merits and great military Services, perform'd as well in Hungary as in the Empire, by the following Perſons, the Emperour has declar'd Lieutenant-General Baron Pfefferſhoven Governor of Buda, a General of Artillery; Major-General Baron Sickinghen, a Lieutenant-General; the Count de Stratman Aulick Councellor of War, a Major-General; Collonel Diesbach, a Major-General; Lieutenant-Collonel Count Honsbruck of the Regiment of Guido Staremberg, and Lieutenant-Collonel Count Wallis of the Regiment of Haſſinghen, Collonels.

From the Paris Letter, dated July 9.

Paris, July 9. Letters from Madrid of the 26th of laſt Month, tell us, they had Advice from Cadix, that the Flotilla which is gone for Vera-Cruz, was convoy'd 25 Leagues beyond the Iſland of Palma, by 2 French Squadrons, one of 2 Men of War, of which M. D' Arrey is Commadore, who afterwards ſail'd for the Northward, and the other of 3 Men of War M. de Gremonville Commadore, who return'd to Cadix the 24th and reports, that the Wind having been very fair for the Flotilla ſince he left it, he believes it may have reach'd the foremoſt Iſlands of America. The 12th M. de Gremonville's Squadron being in the Height of Cape St. Vincent, diſcover'd under the Cannon of the Fort there a Ship with Engliſh Colours of about 40 Guns: The Chevalier de Rochepierre, who commands one of the ſaid 3 Men of War, reſolv'd to attack that Ship; and approaching within half Cannon-ſhot of her, gave her a broadſide, and ſent in his Shallops his firſt Lieutenant with other Officers and ſome Men, who notwithſtanding the great Fire made by the Enemy, boarded and took the Ship and have brought her to Cadix, with no more Loſs than of 3 Men wounded. They write from Eſtramadura, that the Portugueſe having Intelligence the Duke d' Oſſuna was advanc'd to Xerez de los Cavalleros, to joyn the Marquis de Bay, drew off their Army the 17th at Daybreak; and the Marquis de Brancas, whom the Marquis de Bay order'd with a Detachment of 1000 Horſe to obſerve them, found no Opportunity to attack their Rear-guard. Both thoſe Armies are now in Summer-Quarters. The King of Spain, to reſtore the Honour of the Family of Don Antonio German of the Town of Tauſte in Arragon, whom the Rebels hang'd for his Fidelity and Zeal, has allow'd his Children to put into their Coat of Arms a Gibet with a Lion on the Right and a Flower-de-Lys on the Left, with theſe Words pro lege & rege ſuſpendium elegit anima mea; and his Majeſty has order'd a Column to be erected in that Town, with an Inſcription relating to this Matter. Letters from the Duke de Noailles of the 27th paſt, ſay the Prince of Darmſtad is gone to Barcelona, and that the Count d'Ulfeld commands in his Room the Troops at Girone.

Leith, July 1. This Day arriv'd in our Road 2 of her Majeſty's Ships the Mermaid and Squirrel, laſt from Peterhead, and brought under their Convoy the Friendſhip of this Place, James Arburhnot Captain, laden with Wine from Bilboa, with 2 other Ships and 18 Barks with Victuals, &c. from ſeveral Ports in the North. Which Coaſts ſwarm with French Privateers.

Dublin, July 3. We have an Account that on Sunday laſt Captain Cammock in her Majeſty's Ship the Speedwell coming from Plymouth, and having the Woolf-Owler of 6 Guns, Captain Melliſon Commander in Tow, and 2 French Ships coming towards them, one of 44 (as 'tis ſaid) and the other of 18 Guns; while Captain Cammock made off from the large one, having let the Woolf looſe, that of 18 Guns engag'd her: Captain Melliſon fir'd 3 broad-ſides and kill'd 2 of their Men, and had one of his kill'd and one wounded, but was afterwards taken. The French having Mann'd her, in order to Cruize this Way, was afterwards met by Captain Cammock, who re-took her and carry'd her into Milford.

Plymouth, July 6. This Day the Buſtenburg Privateer of Fluſhing, brought in the Fontaine Brigantine laden with Sugar from Martineco.

Shields, July 6. Yeſterday ſail'd out of this Port a good Number of laden Colliers, and ſeveral Ruſſia Ships: The reſt of the Ruſſia Ships will Sail to Day with 3 of the Men of War that came with them, and 2 more that are Convoys to the Colliers.

Yarmouth, July 7. This Morning very early, her Majeſty's Ship the Dunwich ſail'd to the Northward with all the Light Ships bound that Way; and this Day came into the Roads 2 ſmall Men of War from the Southward, with about 10 Sail of Light Veſſels. This Evening came into the Roads from the Northward about 80 Sail of Laden Colliers.

Portſmouth, July 8. This Morning came to Spithead Sir George Bing, Sir John Jennings, and my Lord Durſley from Cruiſing. There are now at Spithead her Majeſty's Ships the Royal Ann, Triumph, Royal Oak, Bedford, Canterbury, Ipſwich, Antelope, Mary, Orford, Auguſte, Humber, Suffolk, Advice, Nightingale, 2 Fireſhips, 3 Bomb-Ships: With about 30 outward-bound Merchant-ſhips.

Harwich, July 8. On Sunday the Prince Pacquet-Boat ſail'd hence with a Mail for Holland. Yeſterday the Boneta and Merlin Sloops ſail'd to the Northward: Came in the Norwich and Newport; and this Morning with ſome Ships under their Convoy ſail'd to the Northward: As did the Eagle Pacquet-Boat with a Mail for Holland.

A Dram of this most delicious Liquor, being taken now and then, wonderfully animates all the Vital Faculties, creates an Appetite, Promotes Digestion, strengthens the Stomach and Bowels, Expels Wind, prevents and Cures the Colick, Gripes, Faintings, Sick Fits and Vapours; Corroberates and restores unspeakably, even in the greatest Weaknesses, and absolutely strengthens the Back, beyond all things in the Universe: It Recreates, Revives and increases the Spirits, Natural, Vital and Animal; comforts and invigorates Nature in all her Acts and Operations; banishes Melancholy, enlivens the Senses, and establishes Briskness and Mirth to Admiration: In short, it infallibly restores and preserves Health, Strength and Vigour, even to Old Age, and is the most pleasant Cordial Dram upon Earth. Price 5 s. a Bottle, with these Directions. Is Sold only at Mr. Allcraft's, Toyshop, at the Blue-Coat-Boy against the Royal Exchange in Cornhil.

A Famous Lithontriptick Electuary, compounded of Chymical Preparations, and peculiarly specificated not only to cure a Fit of the Stone and Gravel; but also to eradicate the very essence, and cause thereof, so as that it will not return again; it infallibly breaks and dissolves the hardest Stone in the Kidnies or Bladder to a Miracle, brings it, with Gravel, Sand and Slime, easily and visibly away with Urine; gives perfect ease in a minute, in the most torturing Pains of that Distemper, to admiration, instantly removes all stoppage, heat, and sharpness of Urine, cleanses the passages of the slimy calculous matter, which by lodging therein produces the Stone, and so absolutly performs an effectual perfect Cure, with such ease and safety, and so soon, that one would be apt to think it was done by immediate Divine assistance. In a thousand Experiments it has not been known to fail. Is sold only at Mr. Spooner's at the Golden Half-Moon in Buckle-street Goodman's-Fields, near White-chapel, at 3 s. a Pot with Directions.

The famous Chymical Secret for the Tooth-ach, a drop or two of which infallibly and instantly takes away the sharpest pain, tho' so violent and raging, as almost to cause Distraction. In less than a minute gives ease to admiration, and not only takes the pain quite away (whether the Teeth be found or rotten) but also certainly prevents its returning again. Price 2 s. 6 d. a Bottle (which contains enough to cure 20 People) with directions. Sold only at Mr. Bell's, a Book-seller, at the Cross-Keys and Bible in Cornhill near Stocks-Market, Where the most infallible Plaister for taking away Corns is Sold at 1 s. a Box, with Directions.
